

Saint Stephen's Mother's Day Out & Preschool

PURPOSE

The Purpose of Mother's Day Out (MDO) and Preschool is for your child to be in a loving, Christian environment where the child is under the supervision of a trained worker and teacher whose goal is to develop each child in the areas of social, physical, emotional, and mental growth.

OBJECTIVES

Your child will participate in a variety of activities suitable to his or her age, such as:

- exploring his/her environment
- interacting with teachers and other children
- learning to sing, respond, and listen to different kinds of music
- enjoying stories, poetry, dramatizations, puppetry, and books
- using play equipment to aid in physical development, and
- working with manipulative materials, such as paints, clay, crayons, scissors, paste, puzzles, and other craft items.

Experiences are designed to strengthen a child's self concept and understanding of his surroundings, such as:

- working as an individual
- solving problems in everyday life
- respecting other's rights
- developing the feeling that school is a place where he/she can find love and understanding, and
- understanding that he/she is special and has worth to himself/herself and to others, regardless of whether he or she achieves.

RECORDS REQUIRED
